

II Corinthians 4:7-5:10 These Clay Pots

4:7-5:10 READ

vss 6-7

"this shined-in light is housed in clay pots"
2:16 "who is adequate?"

vss 8-9

merciful affliction
"but not" ff unfading glory mercy and glory overshadow our affliction Rom 8:18 "not worthy to be compared"

vss 10-12

Jesus' death and resurrection displayed in us
His death evident results in His life being recognized

vs 13

"we preach because we believe" Ps 116:10 LXX despite suffering vs 1; I Cor 4:8-13

vs 14

eternity awaits
we'll join you in heaven

vs 15

all who believe will be there to praise Him

vs 16

"though death is evident in our bodies, inside we are more and more new"

vs 17

"glory beyond all comparison"
Rom 8:18 "not worthy to be compared"

vs 18

the physical is less important than the eternal our eyes are fixed on the eternal 5:7 "we walk by faith, not by sight"

5:1

death just changes the temporary to the eternal

vs 2

“we wearily yearn to get there”

“groan”

vs 4 “groan”

vs 3

“we shall have new bodies”

vss 4, 8-10

we want desperately to have them

that the temporary will no longer exist vs 8 we are ready to go vs 9 but our job here is to live for Him vs 10 “what is done in this body we will account for”

vs 5

this is in God's plan; He gave as a 'down payment' the Holy Spirit

vss 6-7

we hang on in hope, though we want to go vs 7 “we walk by faith, not by sight”

vs 10

what is done in these clay pots “we will account for”